Day 1: Miami Essentials – South Beach, Art Deco & Little Havana

Begin your Miami adventure by exploring South Beach's historic Art Deco district. Wander along Ocean Drive and Collins Avenue, admiring pastel-colored 1930s architecture, and savor breakfast at Las Olas Café, enjoying fresh Cuban pastries and strong espresso. Spend the late morning relaxing on South Beach's iconic sands, soaking in the ocean views. Alternatively, explore Lincoln Road Mall's stylish boutiques or visit the Wolfsonian-FIU museum, showcasing eclectic art and design.

In the afternoon, dive into Miami's Cuban heritage in Little Havana. Lunch at the legendary Versailles restaurant, enjoying authentic Cuban dishes like ropa vieja or classic sandwiches. Afterward, stroll along Calle Ocho, exploring local galleries, cigar stores, and the vibrant scene at Domino Park. Then, visit the nearby Bay of Pigs Monument, commemorating Cuban-American history, before heading downtown to Bayside Marketplace. Here, unwind at the open-air shops and cafés or join a sightseeing boat cruise around Biscayne Bay, viewing celebrity homes and Miami's stunning skyline.

For dinner, choose from seafood restaurants on Ocean Drive or lively eateries on Española Way, followed by experiencing Miami's nightlife. Enjoy salsa dancing at Ball & Chain in Little Havana, energetic live music at Mango's Tropical Café, or cocktails at upscale rooftop lounges like Sugar in Brickell, ending your evening with spectacular city views.

A woman in a long, flowing blue gown is captured in silhouette, playing a violin. She stands on a stage, illuminated by a large, bright spotlight that creates a circular pool of light on the floor beneath her. The background is a dark, ornate theater with rows of seats and a ceiling adorned with numerous small, warm-toned lights. The overall atmosphere is dramatic and elegant.

Day 2: Nature, Culture & Wynwood Arts

Start your morning early with an adventurous trip to Everglades National Park, roughly an hour's drive from Miami. Embark on an exciting airboat tour through the famous wetlands, spotting wildlife like alligators and tropical birds. Alternatively, visit the Shark Valley Visitor Center to explore the Everglades via a guided tram tour or peaceful nature walk. For lunch, return toward Miami, stopping at Coconut Grove's charming Greenstreet Café or waterfront Monty's Raw Bar, known for fresh seafood.

Spend the early afternoon exploring Coconut Grove's historic charm. Visit the Barnacle Historic State Park, Miami's oldest preserved home, or discover the stunning Vizcaya Museum & Gardens, an opulent historic villa overlooking Biscayne Bay. Afterward, take a break relaxing at your hotel pool or return to South Beach for sunbathing and ocean swimming. Alternatively, visit the Pérez Art Museum Miami (PAMM) downtown for further sightseeing, which showcases contemporary international art.

In the evening, explore the vibrant Wynwood Arts District, famous for street murals and creative galleries. Wander through Wynwood Walls, snapping photos of captivating outdoor art. Enjoy dinner at trendy eateries like KYU or Coyo Taco, then experience Wynwood's lively nightlife scene, featuring eclectic bars like Gramps, craft breweries, and live music venues.

Day 3: Luxury, Relaxation & Sunset Views

Start your final day with a leisurely visit to the serene island of Key Biscayne. Explore Bill Baggs Cape Florida State Park, relaxing on beautiful beaches or climbing the historic Cape Florida Lighthouse for sweeping coastal views. Enhance your morning with a refreshing kayaking or paddleboarding session around Key Biscayne's tranquil waters, observing marine life and scenic views. Lunch casually at Boater's Grill, enjoying fresh seafood and marina vistas.

In the afternoon, visit elegant Coral Gables, strolling Mediterranean-style streets lined with boutiques along Miracle Mile. Explore historic sites like the Venetian Pool, a picturesque 1920s swimming area surrounded by lush gardens and waterfalls, or wander through the tropical beauty of Fairchild Botanic Garden. For a more cultural twist, admire the grandeur of the historic Biltmore Hotel, reflecting Coral Gables' luxurious past.

End your Miami adventure with an evening in sophisticated Brickell. Enjoy upscale shopping at Brickell City Centre, then indulge in dinner at renowned restaurants such as Zuma or La Mar, savoring fine international cuisines. Complete your trip with spectacular sunset views and cocktails from rooftop lounges like Sugar or Area 31, or take a serene evening stroll along the scenic Miami Riverwalk, absorbing the glittering lights and vibrant energy of Miami's skyline.
